

N4

System of desks

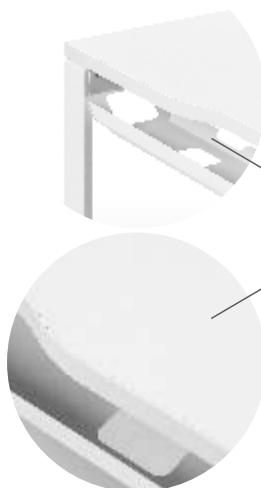

N4 is a system of single and double desks that allows to create functional and simple solutions to arrange office spaces. The common, recessed legs enable creating multi-person bench-type desk arrangements. Thanks to the sliding desktops and comfortable scalloped edges, making the access to large cable channels easy, these desks are exceptionally practical and comfortable. The N4 system takes into consideration modern aesthetics, it is characterised by simplicity and lightness of form.

Functional features:

- Its universal design allows to create single, double and multi-person bench-type workplaces.
- Its stable and durable structure at the same time demonstrates lightness and delicacy.
- Practical scalloped edges of desktops guarantee a quick and easy cable management.
- A sliding desktop with a deep cable channel increases desk ergonomics.
- The creation of multi-person workstations on intermediate legs saves up office space.
- N4 system is compatible with ETUM partition screens.
